A photograph of a riverbank with a large spill of white, fibrous material, likely cotton or wool, on the ground. The spill is surrounded by dry grass and twigs. A white plastic bag is visible on the right side of the spill. In the foreground, there is a small blue container with a white tag attached to it. The tag has handwritten text: "Sulphur Creek", "F. Wetland", "08/10/10-11", and "S. Yalugo".
